1. Heard both sides. This is an application made by the co-accused for sending back the record & proceedings as he is in jail and his trial has been delayed. It is seen that 3 out of 8 accused have applied for discharge and when their applications were rejected, they have filed the present appeal and/or revision. It is seen that the other accused have not applied for discharge because they are in jail and trial is held up. In the circumstances, liberty is given to the appellants/applicants to file private paper book. The said private paper book to be filed within 4 weeks from today in this Court. Office to make the record and certified copies available if applied for. After the period of 4 weeks, record & proceedings be sent to the trial Court and the trial to proceed. However, it is made clear that no final judgment to be given in the trial without obtaining further orders of this Court. With these observations, application stands disposed of.
